Peter Lewis : Famous Cities Search-a-Word Puzzles (Dover Children's Activity Books) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Famous Cities Search-a-Word Puzzles (Dover Children's Activity Books):

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Beware - you will need a magnifying glass!By DJSEANPCThe words and letters are extremely small. It did not reference large print, but I based on the preview of the book, I expected the wording to be much bigger.3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Helps to Learn CitiesBy Jeannie70Gave this to my son because he loves find a words. Thought it would help him to know his cities even if he never travels.3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Too easyBy Ruth A. MillerThese puzzles are way too easy for me. It would be good for someone pretty young or maybe someone really old whose mind is fading.

Where are the Spanish Steps? What is the modern-day name for Byzantium? Where is Wrigley Field? These and many more questions are answered in these fact-filled puzzles, making them an entertaining and informative way to learn about famous cities around the world. (Answers: Rome, Istanbul, and Chicago.)Scan the grids to discover groups of letters that spell forward or backward, vertically, horizontally, or diagonally the names of waterways, thoroughfares, airports, landmarks, government buildings, royal residences, and other notable aspects of 50 cities, including Rio de Janeiro, Mecca, Oslo, Montreal, Hong Kong, Athens, New York, and many more. All subjects are listed and identified in a section below the letter grids. And if you're stumped, you'll find solutions in back but try not to peek!
