ReamsI teach bridge, and this is the only book I have found that has lots of sample practice hands to reinforce the concept of four-suit transfers. Patty has done a masterful job of writing clearly so not only the teacher, but also the student can clearly understand what she is saying. After reading this book, you will have a clear idea about what to do when your partner opens 1NT and you have a long minor suit.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Excellent bookBy

Cranky reviewerVery clearly written book on a limited but useful aspect of bridge bidding. Good examples make it easy to learn.

How to bid a minor after partner's No Trump opener? Four Suit Transfers will solve those problem hands.

About the AuthorIn the world of competitive bridge, Patty Tucker (born 1954) holds the honor and rank, American Contract Bridge League (ACBL) Grand Life Master. She also teaches duplicate bridge and is an author of 40+ bridge books and workbooks. The ACBL's Board of Directors named Patty the 2016 Honorary Member of the Year" for her efforts in sustaining the game of bridge for future generations. Patty reflected, I teach bridge for the immense satisfaction I get, in passing on to others, my knowledge, respect, and love for the game of bridge. Bridge Career In 1999, Patty's lifelong interest in bridge turned into a full-time career. Patty is certified by the American Bridge Teachers Association, as a Master Teacher which is the highest designation in the North American bridge teaching community. In 2000, Patty and her long-time partner and husband, Kevin Collins, earned national recognition by winning The North American Open Pairs National Bridge Championship.
