Galison : Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation Hoffman House Rug Design 1000 Piece Puzzle before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation Hoffman House Rug Design 1000 Piece Puzzle:

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. beautiful puzzle, really nice By kate.g I'm such a grannie, I love puzzles, so relaxing, but also mentally engaging. I like abstract designs the best because you don't get as much leftover boring space, or easily followed gradations the way you might with a landscape. I also find they are a bit more mentally engaging, you have to "see" things differently, which is always a good exercise for a visual artist like myself, a video editor. Also check out the puzzles by Charlie Harper, similar clean aesthetic. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. good By Customer fast delivery, good puzzle 1 of 3 people found the following review helpful. For the right person this would be great. By Art Chik This one looked so interesting on line but now that it's here with me nobody wants to work it. Some people think it will be too hard. Others think it's not interesting enough to be worth the time to put it together. I guess this group prefers puzzles with a lot of little details to enjoy as we build. As far as puzzle quality, it's very nice. Smooth, well-fitting pieces.
