A real expert at his craft!By VMLMDid you know that there's a profession that can make you forget your worries for a while and help you to enjoy the lighter side of life? It's the profession of a stand-up comic. Stand-up comedy has the marvelous influence of bringing pleasure and joy to people for many years now. If you are good at making people laugh and you love to tell jokes then this may be the book for you. Simon Cavalli is a real expert at this craft, and he has put together this easy to follow, one step at a time, methodical read, on how you can master the art of comedy. Simon, a comic himself has firsthand experience to guide you in an easy to follow and fun way, into possibly the job you have dreamed of doing. He will go over such topics as pre-gig preparation, and how to prepare yourself intellectually before you go on stage. He will open your eyes to things you may not have known, like who would have thought introverts make great comics? If you read this book you will definitely see that there was a lot of thought, time and first hand-knowledge put into this by a person who really cares about bringing joy to people as well as loves his art as a comic. My sister is one of the funniest people I know; she has a way of cracking me up with almost everything we talk about. I'm always telling her she needs to go to an open mic and try out stand-up comedy. This book is perfect for her and I can't wait to give it to her. Thanks Simon for sharing your wonderful knowledge!

Luckily I live in a larger city with several comedy clubs so I go there often. I noticed they have an amateur night and have really been thinking about giving it a try. I picked up this book to help with pointers and also as motivation. This book gives some great tips on things I had never thought of when it comes to being a comedian. I am for sure going to put a little more practice into my routine before I even take on amateur night. I was about to go wing it, but I think I would have not even been accepted. I am so glad I purchased this book so I can practice a little more. Maybe some day you guys will see my name in lights. That is my goal. Thanks for the great tips in this book.
