UNKNOWN AUTHOR : Independent Producers' Guide to Film and TV Contracts before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Independent Producers' Guide to Film and TV Contracts:

First time film-makers, producers and writers will find this Independent Producers' Guide an essential reference tool.

The numerous examples of typical legal agreements contained in the book are wide ranging; from the deals that a producer must make at the outset of a project to acquire source rights, through to production and co-production and distribution arrangements for the finished product. Each agreement is closely annotated with comments and guidelines on how the deals are structured. They provide simple explanations of provisions contained within the agreements, identifying potential pitfalls faced by producers as well as giving general advice. The accompanying free CD-ROM contains templates of all agreements found in the book. These are intended to be downloaded and tailored for your own use.

Philip Alberstat is a media finance and production lawyer specialising in film, television and broadcasting. He has worked on films such as The 51st State, Goodbye Mr Steadman, Tooth and numerous television programmes and series.
