By Anna Weiss I love it. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Brilliant
By joe Another brilliant screenplay by the Coen brothers. Almost as enjoyable as the movie itself. I was on page 50 before I knew it. 2 of 3 people found the following review helpful. AMAZING!!!!
By jerry I really enjoyed this movie so when I found out that I could purchase the screenplay I did so. I'm a aspiring writer and director so reading a script really helps, and this one did not disappoint. The Coen brothers really know how to write a script. Also the quality of the script is absolutely amazing, most scripts will just be printed on cheap paper or something but that is not the case here. I highly recommend this product if you're into films and scripts or if you just really love the Coen brothers movies.

(Book). Includes the complete script, lyrics and stills Interview with executive music producer T. Bone Burnett Introduction by music historian Elijah Wald Quintessential Coen brothers fare but different. Inside Llewyn Davis has a certain kinship with Les Misérables. In it, almost all the principal actors Oscar Isaac, Carey Mulligan, Justin Timberlake sing. While not quite a musical, Inside Llewyn Davis is built around full-length performances of folk songs that were heard in the grubby cafes of the Village in a year when Bob Dylan, who kind of, sort of shows up in the movie, had just appeared on the scene. Bob Dylan, Paul Clayton, the Rev. Reverend Gary Davis, Joni Mitchell, Tom Paxton and myriad other singers of the era are invoked in the film. Its story bounces through actual places like Gerde's, the Gaslight Cafe and the Gate of Horn in Chicago without explicitly portraying real artists or folk music powers like the impresario Albert Grossman. Working with the producer Scott Rudin, their collaborator on both True Grit and No Country for Old Men, the Coen Brothers shot the film in New York City and elsewhere last year and finished the movie at their own pace. They could have rushed it into the Oscar season but chose to bide their time. T. Bone Burnett, who provided the old time music of O Brother, Where Art Thou?, also produced the music for Inside Llewyn Davis. Mr. Burnett has helped to re-create the brief flowering of a folk scene that in the early '60s made Washington Square and its environs an unlikely crossroads for musical influences from Appalachia, the Deep South, the Far West, New England almost anywhere but New York's neighborhoods, from which some of its heartiest practitioners, and Llewyn Davis, arrived.

"Ranks with their very best in its nearly pitch-perfect balance of biting satirical humour and deep reserves of feeling." --Jon Frosch, THE ATLANTIC "A conjuring act of near-magical conviction, an ode to the artistic spirit that's as uncompromising as the troubled genius it chronicles." --Greg Evans, BLOOMBERG "A conjuring act of near-magical conviction, an ode to the artistic spirit that's as uncompromising as the troubled genius it chronicles." --Greg Evans, BLOOMBERG "A conjuring act of near-magical conviction, an ode to the artistic spirit that's as uncompromising as the troubled genius it chronicles." --Greg Evans, BLOOMBERG "A conjuring act of near-magical conviction, an ode to the artistic spirit that's as uncompromising as the troubled genius it chronicles." --Greg Evans, BLOOMBERG About the Author Joel and Ethan Coen are the writer/directors of THE BIG LEBOWSKI, FARGO (for which they won the Best Original Screenplay Academy Award) and NO COUNTRY FOR OLD MEN (for which they won Best Adapted Screenplay, Best Director and Best Film Academy Awards).
