By mare
This is a reissue of a book originally published in 2005. The print in this 2013 version is not that clear and is not easy on the eyes. The original books in this series had perforated pages so you could remove them to do the puzzles. This edition does not have that. The puzzles themselves are good, but the poor quality of the print takes away from the pleasure of doing them.

By Pamela Hazelton
Confession: I didn't look at the page count before ordering, so I was quite surprised at how thin the book is. There's only around 60 puzzles. The quality is fine, but for the page count, it's a pricey book.

By Melissa B. Anderson
My kind of puzzles! I do not enjoy puzzles that only require filling in the boxes. The ones that require (ahem) some cheating are much more the style that appeal to me and my husband. We aren't brainiacs, but we very much enjoy a challenge.
